

Christian Life Community “Monseñor Oscar Arnulfo Romero” CLC El Salvador

Dear Friends from the CLC Worldwide community:

We want to share with you something that fills us with great joy not only as a national community CLC El Salvador, but the whole country.

On Saturday May 23 will be the beatification of Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador, who was murdered on March 24, 1980.

Monsignor Romero was known as "the voice of the voiceless", as his preferential choice for the poor was most evident. It was the solid support to the most vulnerable during the Salvadoran civil war in the 80's. While he was aware he was risking his life, he went on tirelessly, in denouncing the human rights violations during the time of military regime. His greatest legacy is to show that you can live according to the Gospel, down to the last consequences for the love of others. As clear was clearly said by Father Ignacio Ellacuria" ... with Monsignor Romero, God went through El Salvador"

As Christian Life Community called "Monsignor Oscar Arnulfo Romero," we have a responsibility to share this legacy with the world community. We know that many of you are well aware of his story, but for those who still have not heard, we invite you to learn more about his life, that path to be a true Christian.

Finally, we are left to invite you to join us in this great celebration that cheers us through difficult situation in our country. Hope you could share with us pictures with your greetings, wishes, thoughts regarding this Salvadoran prophet. You can do so via email: cvx_el_salvador@hotmail.com or our Facebook page "CVX El Salvador".

We hope all members of the world community to continue with the flame lit in the pursuit of building the Kingdom in our land.

May the Lord bless you all.
